Approval of August Minutes: Passed 5-0.

Board Reports:

Treasurer: Greg reported that the domain the bank balance is currently $478.10 minus roughly $51 for website renewal. Greg was going to provide the exact amount of web renewal when he returned home.

Membership: Randy reported there have been no new members. Jason Vallery and Kristen Hoyer's memberships are scheduled to expire at the end of November. Jason has moved out of Boulder County and Kristen has been notified of her expiring membership.

Newsletter: Eva asked the board for an opinion regarding the delivery method of a special edition of the newsletter, specifically whether it should be delivered via postal mail or the LPBC website. A motion was raised to deliver the newsletter via the website and was passed 5-0.

Outreach: Dan has been working on the LPBC website and has finished his redesign of the front page aesthetics. Dan presented part of his work on the website redesign to the attending members. Dan and Greg will work together and determine a method to host the new version of the website for review by the board. Eva would like to work with L. Neil Smith and Jerry Van Sickle

Old Business: None

New Business:

As a vehicle for outreach, Eva announced that she would like to work with science fiction writer L. Neil Smith and Jerry Van Sickle to write a piece that would describe how the judicial system could be used to replace many current government functions.

Eva declared her intent to run for Boulder County commissioner in 2009.

Eva announced that she has resolved an issue wherein she has received complaints that Liberty on the Rocks were encouraging Libertarian-registered voters to change their party affiliation to Republican. Eva plans to have lunch with individuals at Liberty on the Rocks to identify and work on jointly-beneficial projects.

A motion to adjourn was made and passed by a vote of 5 to 0 at 7:47 pm.
